COMPLAINTS ABOUT SCHOOLS IN NEWHAM

THE FOUR STAGE PROCESS

Schools hope to resolve parents' concerns informally. If the school has been unable to do so, parents should take the following action.

Complaints about Schools

The four stage process

This leaflet tells you how to follow through a complaint about something you feel has gone wrong in the school. Different education complaints are dealt with in different ways - see the 'other complaints' section on the end.

How to make a complaint

STAGE ONE - Talk to the teacher

As soon as you have a concern, make an appointment to talk to the class teacher or form tutor. Difficulties can often be sorted out very quickly in this way. If you are unsure about who to contact and how, ask at the school office. Please do not try to see the teacher or tutor during the school's teaching day when they are taking or preparing lessons. You will need to make an appointment by contacting the school by telephone, email, fax, post or in person.

To help prepare for your meeting please let the school know what your meeting is about when you book the appointment and you may also find it helpful to review the school's website for school policies or request copies of the policies on the issues you want to discuss ie., Bullying, Behaviour Policy etc.

It is hoped you can reach an agreement that satisfies you and the school. If matters do not improve or you are still unhappy, proceed to Stage Two.

STAGE TWO - Meet the head teacher

This can only happen if you have been through Stage One, however schools do recognise that some complaints may go straight to the head teacher because of the nature or seriousness of them.

The school office will arrange an appointment for you to meet with the head teacher or another senior member of staff, who will investigate the complaint. The school will write to you within five working days of the meeting, setting out its response. It is hoped that the decision will satisfy you.

However if after this stage you still feel the matter is unresolved or you cannot accept what the school says, then you can go to Stage Three.

STAGE THREE - go to the chair of governors

Within ten working days of getting the head teacher's decision, you should write to the chair of governors, care of the school office. This can only happen if you have been through Stage One and Stage Two.

You are advised to put your complaint in writing and you must ensure that you include details of why you are still dissatisfied with the decision, the recommendations and actions of the Stage 2 complaint and what you require to resolve the matter. You may also attach any evidence to support your concerns that can be additional to that submitted at Stages 1 and 2.

The Chair of Governors (or if vice chair if delegated) will write to back within 5 days of receipt of the complaint to acknowledge this and that another letter will follow within 20 school days setting out the actions taken to investigate the complaint and the findings.

The Chair may want to talk with you or investigating staff members to establish facts and obtain further information.

Once a decision has been reached on the complaint, the Chair of Governors will notify you in writing of the conclusion. If you are still dissatisfied you can write to the Governing Body directly via the school or, Governor Services or School Management Support at Newham Partnership Working outlining why they feel the complaint is unresolved.

STAGE FOUR - go to the governors

If you are dissatisfied with the response from the Chair of Governors (or Vice Chair) the complaint goes to the school's governors. This can only happen if you have been through Stage One, Stage Two and Stage Three.

You are advised to put your complaint in writing to the School Governing Body. You must ensure that you include details of why you are still dissatisfied with the decision of the Chair, recommendations and actions of the Stage 3 complaint and what you feel would resolve the matter. You can also attach any evidence to support your concerns in addition to that submitted at Stages 1, 2 and 3.

The complaint will be acknowledged within 10 school days.

A panel of Governors will review your complaint at a meeting. This stage should take no more than 15 working days to complete.

An outcome letter informing you of their decision will be sent to you within 20 school days of the meeting.

Resolving complaints locally

Young people have a right to be treated with dignity and respect and valued for who they are and what they bring to their school. As parents, you have a right to expect a high quality education service which seeks to increase the life chances of all pupils and students. You have the right to complain if you are not happy with the education your child receives from school.

Every parent wants the best for their child. Newham's schools want all their pupils to achieve as much as they can, but we acknowledge that sometimes there are difficulties.

Should you choose to complain, Newham schools will try to:

- investigate your complaint carefully
- recognise when a mistake has been made
- when appropriate, take action to prevent the problem happening again

Schools aim to deal with complaints in a way that is simple, fair, fast and satisfies your concerns. You must contact the school and follow the above three stage process if you have a complaint about a school.

Other complaints

Some education matters have their own complaints or appeal procedures determined by other statutory arrangements. If your complaint relates to one of these areas mentioned below, put your complaint in writing and send it to the service area shown below to Newham Council, Dockside Building, 1000 Dockside Road, London E16 2QU.

- Group Manager, Special Education Needs - for statutory special education needs (SEN) assessments
- Group Manager, Admissions - for school place admissions, appeals and exclusions
- Head of Learning Transformation - for the school's curriculum and collective worship

If your complaint is about an event that happened over 12 months ago we are not obliged to investigate further. All complaints about members of staff must be made in writing.

Help with making your complaint
