

LO: to continue the story, using expanded noun phrases.

Example:

One stormy, magical night, Tilly was trekking through the mysterious, mythical wood. After a while, she began to feel bored but then something incredible happened! She saw a flash of light shimmering brightly so she followed it and saw a tiny tree with lush, green moss all over it.

Before she could scoop it up, sparkling water began to trickle through her muddy fingers. Tilly thought that it must be a magical tree because normal trees don't behave like this. Then just as she was about to try to find home again, the forest around her began to swirl...
