

Sharing Equally

Lesson 2

In Focus

There are 6 cookies.
Each child takes the same number of cookies.
How many cookies does each child get?

Let's Learn

1 Each child takes one cookie.

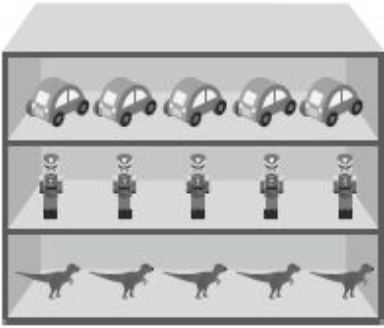

Each child takes one more cookie.

No cookies
are left.

Each child takes ___ cookies.

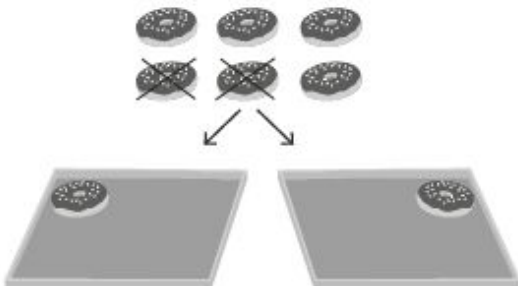

There are ___ toys altogether.
There are ___ shelves.
There are ___ toys on each shelf.

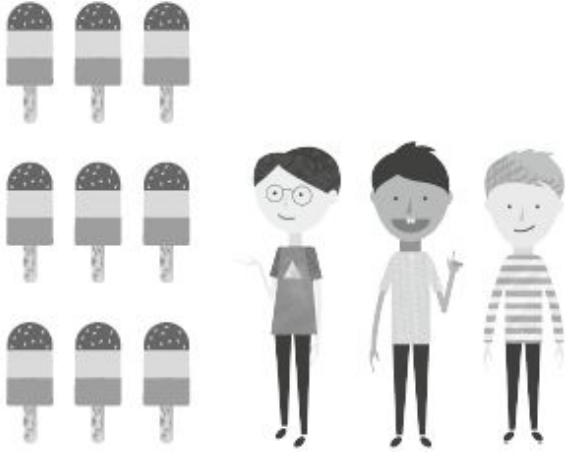

There are ___ pencils in all.
There are ___ holders.
There are ___ pencils in each holder.

There are 6 doughnuts.
Put them equally into 2 boxes.

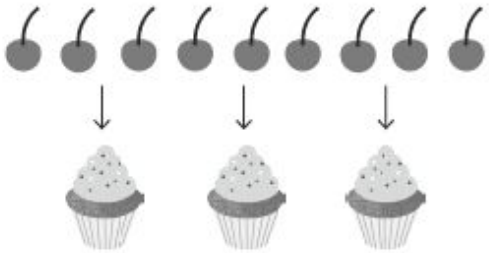

There are ___ doughnuts in each box.

There are 9 ice lollies.
3 boys share the ice lollies equally.
How many ice lollies does each boy get?

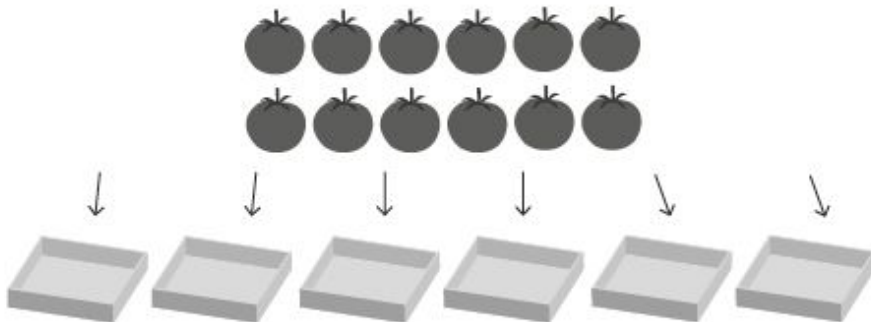

Each boy gets ___ ice lollies.

Put 9 cherries equally onto 3 cupcakes.

There are ___ cherries on each cupcake.

Put 12 tomatoes equally in 6 boxes.

There are ___ tomatoes in each box.