

Last week, you all should have used recycled materials in your house to make a plant of your choice.

Your task is to upload an image of your plant and write a recount about how you made it.

- write in chronological order
- use connectives
- include conjunctions
- ensure it's written in past tense

Share your great skills!

