

Week 3

Monday - Day one - Grammar

Today you will be practising how to use fronted adverbials in writing with the correct punctuation.

Read through the powerpoint explaining how to use a fronted adverbial.

Challenge 2 + 3:

Use fronted adverbials to write a paragraph describing the picture Above remember to include all the correct punctuation after the fronted adverbial. Use the different example types from the image below in your writing

Example of a fronted adverbial sentence

As soon as the bomb exploded, the soldiers were ready for war.

Writing Your Own Fronted Adverbials: ISPACE

Use ISPACE can help you remember six different ways to create fronted adverbials...

I	-Ing word	e.g. Shaking with fear, ...
S	Simile	e.g. Like a raging bull, ...
P	Preposition	e.g. Behind the clouds, ...
A	Adverb	e.g. Anxiously, ...
C	Conjunction	e.g. After he opened his eyes, ...
E	-Ed word	e.g. Exhausted, ...