

Amphibians

Printed below are 12 statements about amphibians. Before completing the quiz below, read the amphibians fact file. Then decide whether the statements are true or false.

Statements	True or False
Amphibian means two lives - one in water and one on land.
Amphibians have lungs so they can breathe in water and fins so they can swim in water.
Amphibians have gills so they can breathe in water and lungs so they can breathe on land.
Amphibians start their life by living on land then they move into the water.
Most amphibians are carnivores which means they eat meat for example insects, worms and spiders.
A snake is an example of an amphibian.
A frog is an example of an amphibian.
Frogs close their eyes when they go to sleep.
The chinese salamander is the largest amphibian.
Toads have longer legs than a frog.
A baby frog is called a tadpole.
Toads are usually nocturnal.	