

C2 / Wk 7: Direct and Indirect Speech

Speech	Direct or Indirect Speech
Nervously, William asked if he could bounce the ball.
“It’s my turn to throw the javelin,” Shiya shouted.
“Stop shouting! You’re giving me a headache!” Jacob called aggressively.
Dad said that he wanted the children to watch the TV quietly.
Kylie mentioned that the swings were broken.
“I love the park especially when the birds are singing!” smiled the girl happily.

Add any missing punctuation to the sentences containing direct speech.

1. I want a drink of coke shouted the annoying child as she stomped her feet.
2. Even though it was cold outside, the old man explained I need to go for a walk every day.
3. Please can you help me with my English learning pleaded Lucinda in a whiny voice.
4. Will we ever get to the seaside screeched the child from the back of the car.

Change the indirect speech to direct speech.

1. Alexander declared that we all need to listen to one another more.
2. My brother excitedly stated that he couldn’t wait to arrive at the party.