

Year 3,

You have spent a lot of time completing a range of activities online. Today, your task is to practise your handwriting skills in your homework book. Next week is half term and you are going to write down the activities you would like to complete during the week. In addition, we'd like you to think about the acts of kindness that you will also do.

Take photos of your work and upload it on google classroom.

May
Half Term
Activities