

Fables

What is a fable? A fable is a story with animal characters. It is a story which teaches us a lesson, sometimes called a moral

Read through the three fables, The fox and the crow, the lion and the mouse and the tortoise and the hare, and write the relevant information in the matrix below.

Title	Characters Who are the main characters and how many are there? Do the animals speak? Are they good/bad characters? Why?	Setting Where is the fable set? Why do you think it is set here? (Think about where you will find the main character)	Moral What lesson is the story trying to teach you? A moral is found at the end of a story.
