

Week 6

Monday - Day one- Grammar

Use a different colour font to add speech marks to the conversation below between the woman and the dragon. Remember all the punctuation rules from the powerpoint.

where shall we go next? asked the woman, feeling scared.

let's head to the mountains where no-one will ever find us, replied the dragon quietly.

yes, that's a good idea. She replied sadly.

don't worry, no-one will bother us there, said the dragon kindly.

I know, I just wish they didn't hate us! cried the woman.

Now write your own examples of speech using the correct punctuation.
