

Complete the story, focus on including:

- Use a metaphor and a simile.
- using 2 subordinating conjunctions (because, even, though, although, after, since, if, until) in complex sentences.
- using coordinating conjunctions (for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so) in compound sentences.

Remember you need to write a climax and resolution to the story.

Stig quickly became my best friend, we did everything together, he taught me how to hunt. One day we went hunting, I wasn't quite sure what we were hunting for, but it was fun, we got to the forest, knee deep in wild grass, wading through, me with my boots on and Stig, well of course, he was always barefooted. Suddenly a baby deer was approaching from ahead, it looked lost, Stig signalled for me to draw my bow and arrow and not to make a sound, he crouched down slowly next to me, I was trembling, my legs shaking...
