

Complete the story, focus on including:

- Use adverbs to add detail to sentences e.g. slowly, noisily, carelessly
- Use preposition phrases to add detail to sentences e.g. between, under, over, into, before, since, through

Remember you need to write a climax and resolution to the story.

Back in Stig's cave, we unloaded some jars that I brought him from grandma, I thought that they might come in useful for something. Stig seems to find a use for everything. My sister asked me before leaving the house why on earth I needed several empty jam jars and what I was going to do with them, I simply told her that Stig will find a use for anything! She looked at me and didn't say a word! Stig looked at the jars curiously, I wondered, had he ever seen a window before? a real house? a car? or had he just seen the forest and the wildlife? As I thought, I just stared at his face and said nothing, which possibly puzzled him more. After a moment's silence, Stig got to work with the jars as I watched waiting for instructions...