

Monday - Challenge 1, 2 & 3

Week 7 - Day 1

Read chapter 1 of The Firework-maker's daughter by Phillip Pullman.

You will be writing a paragraph summarising the chapter in your own words. Remember to include the main idea of the chapter, the characters and some of their thoughts and feelings. Please use the example below to give you an idea of how to write your summary.

My example:

Widowed Lalchand, who is an experienced fire-worker maker, has a daughter, Lila, who wants to follow in his footsteps. She learns how to make some of the simpler fireworks, but her father thinks making it her trade would be a bad idea. Despite being an accomplished fire-work maker, Lila still isn't experienced enough to work for herself. Worse still, she finds out that her father has other plans for her.
