

Science Week 4

Using the powerpoint and pdf to support you from last week, I would like you to create your own lifecycle chart to explain the reproductive system with your chosen species (amphibian, reptile, birds or insects). Please do not create a chart with mammals as you have done that last week. You may choose to draw it on paper and upload it as an image or you can create it online.