Peace At Last (Mon-Tues)

Today we will be reading 'Peace At Last' by Jill Murphy. Alongside this document, a pdf copy has been attached of the story. Below is a YouTube link of the story too.

Today we will be creating our own comic strip of the story! You will need to draw the story in the correct order and then write sentences underneath.

In your comic strip you must

- Draw the pictures in chronological order
- Write sentences to show what happens in each picture
- Include the different characters and settings in the story
- Adjectives and interesting vocabulary

Below attached are examples of comic strips.
