

Week 1 - Day two

Tuesday - Challenge 2 & challenge 3

Read part two of The firework maker's daughter again. In this part of the story, the author has used a lot of speech. The author has used many different words instead of 'said'. Identify the different words used and explain why the author has used this word. What effect does the word have in the story?

Look at my example below to help you.

'You horrible little boy!' he roared.	The author has used the word roared to show that the character is very angry. The exclamation mark also shows he is shocked by the boy's actions.
