The Cave of Curiosity

In the cave of curiosity, I created an angry ant ambling along, a terrified tarantula tickling a tornado and a curious computer calling cautiously to the King.

the sound of silence closing its lips, a hummingbird's wings flickering, as the sea silently scrapes the pebbles and ten tired lorries trundle by.

the touch of smooth stones from the summer beach, the stickiness of honey on a fingertip and the heat from a teaspoon as it stirs my morning tea.

the coldness of frost as it freckles the windowpane, the sharpness of a saw as it crunches through wood and the sadness of a tear as it trickles down a cheek.

In the cave of curiosity, I captured the moon's cold gleam imprisoned in a box, the joy of a merry-go-round as it spins like a feral ferris wheel and the force of a rainbow as it dazzles the sky with a smile that stuns.
