

Challenge 2

Mr Wonka himself had suddenly become even more excited than usual, and anyone could see that this was the room he loved best of all. He lifted the lid from a huge pot and took a sniff; then he rushed over and dipped a finger into a barrel of sticky yellow stuff and had a taste; then he skipped across to one of the machines and turned half a dozen knobs this way and that; then he peered anxiously through the glass door of a gigantic oven, rubbing his hands and cackling with delight at what he saw inside.

1. Underline the verbs.

2. How did Mr Wonka feel in this room?

3. What did he taste?

4. How was the pot described?

5. Why do you think Mr Wonka skipped across to one of the machines?

6. What does anxiously mean?

7. What do you think was inside the oven? Why?
